School Days,

School Days. . .

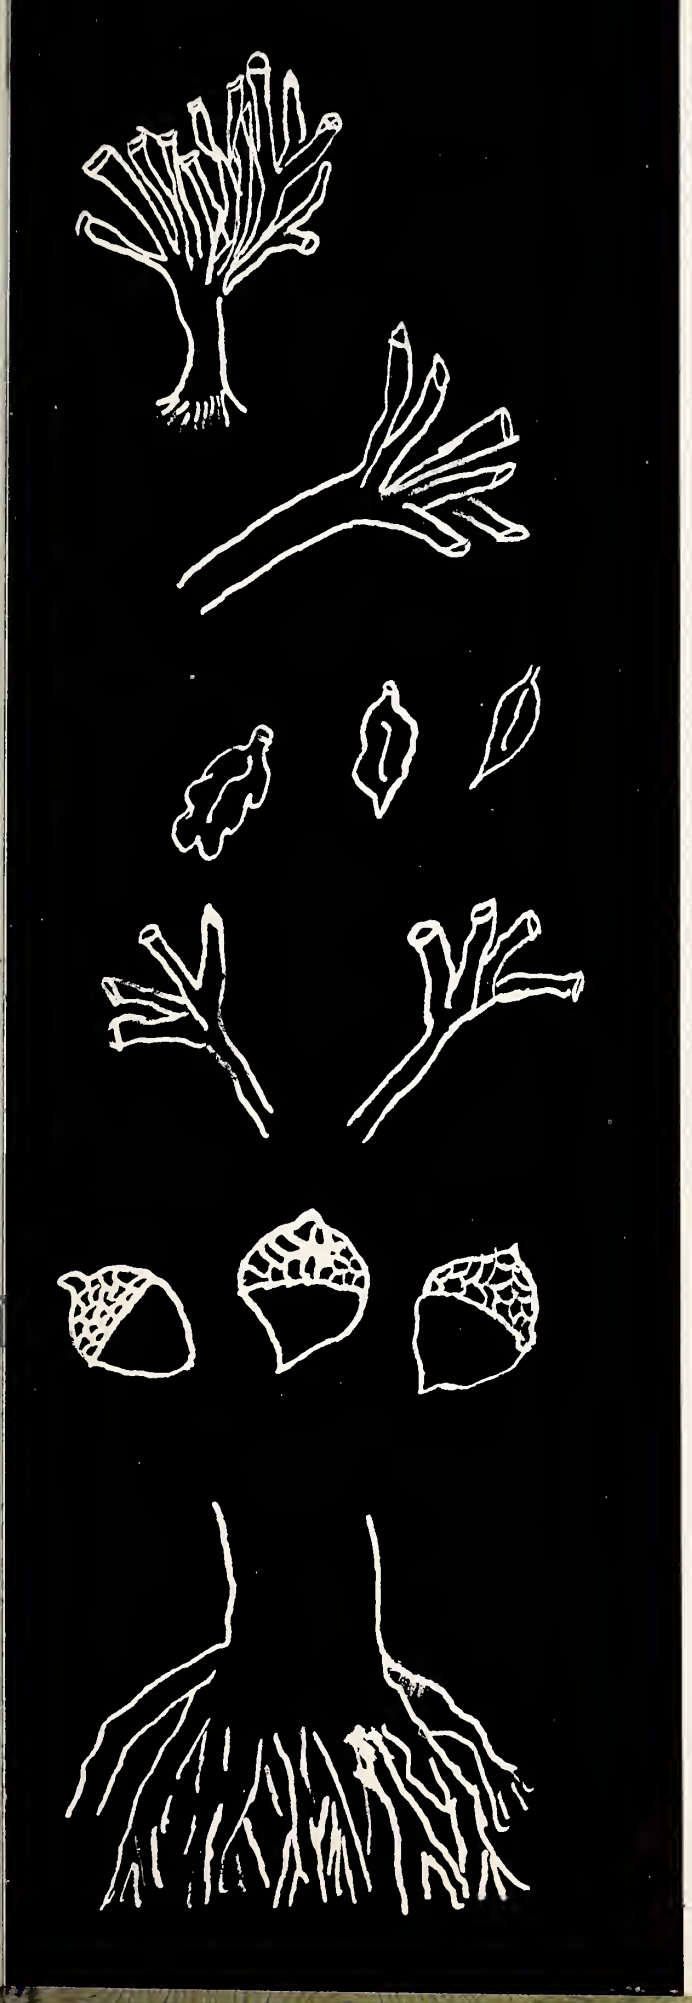

Mr. Fred Hobson,

Speaking for myself, the other editors, and Blue Jay staff members, I would like to express my thanks and appreciation for the education I have received at Jonesville High School. As Superintendent of the Yadkin County Schools, you have done, and I am sure you will continue to do, a very good job. I hope you will enjoy this edition of The Blue Jay.

I think that I shall never see
A poem as lovely as a tree. . .

. . . Poems are made by fools like me
But only God can make a tree.

Dedication

To the teacher who:

Listened to our countless errors
Offered her help when times were tough
Guided all our struggling efforts
Encouraged as when the going was rough
Nevertheless we all appreciated
Each and every paper she graded.

So,

Heres to the teacher we thank for encouragement
Over and over she told us we could
Officially the Seniors wish to thank you
Deserving . . . Mrs. Logene Hood.

Faculty and Administration

Through the years they guide us,
Helpful hands they use,
They guide our feet in paths of gold
They lead us all with truths.

The Administration and Faculty
Represent the roots of our old sturdy tree
They form a true foundation
As you can plainly see.

MR. D. R. SHUGART
Principal

Principal

Mr. D. R. Shugart has won the respect and admiration of all the students during his first year as principal. He has stressed the advantages of acquiring a better education and the importance of a good scholastic record. Being a former Jonesville High School student himself, Mr. Shugart is a strong promoter of school spirit.

School Board

Our school board, consisting of Mr. Bob Snow, Mr. Marshall Adams, and Mr. Hugh Swaim, is continually working for the benefit of our school in the making of their many decisions.

Superintendent

Mr. Fred Hobson, our county superintendent, is always interested in the progress of our school and promoting methods that will improve our school system.

Secretary

School secretary, Mrs. Jo Ann Wolfe, uses efficiency in the handling of all office tasks and greets all visitors with a friendly smile.

Mr. Parker, teacher of chemistry, biology, and science is shown here explaining one of his many experiments.

Seems as though Mrs. Ola Hendren, home economics teacher, always has some new idea about home decorating and cooking.

Teaching health and social studies and coaching football keep Mr. John Charles on the go, but he is never too busy to help us with our problems.

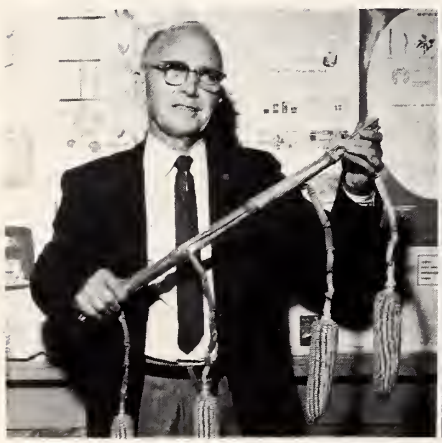

Miss Ann Wilhelm is always around, keeping us on our toes in typing, shorthand and business arithmetic.

Whether it be English II or science, Mr. Miller is ready to explain it to us.

Mrs. Snow is close by and willing to assist us when we need help in French or English III.

Mr. Hugh Partin helps our boys to learn more about the needs and uses of agriculture.

Without Mrs. Logene Hood, our English grammar would be lost and so would the Freshmen and Seniors.

Always smiling is Mr. John Mathis, who teaches History and coaches basketball. He is forever pushing his boys' basketball team toward that Class A Championship.

Mrs. Faye Byrd, librarian for both high school and elementary school, is always busy guiding her assistants for a possible future in Library Science.

Our very capable math teacher, Mr. Joe Stroud, not only helps his math students but others as well when the need arises.

Miss Mary Speer, our loyal annual staff counselor, also teaches math and counsels the student body in any problem, whether it be college or personal.

Mr. Edward West prepares his 8th grade students for high school and takes time out to be a fine leader of our Boy Scouts.

Miss Betty Jean Robinson makes sure there is never a dull moment in any of her classes.

Mr. Troy Proctor, one of the newer members of the faculty, has already proved himself an outstanding teacher.

Mrs. Mary Kelly is working to improve her 7th grade students in every manner.

Mr. Tolar Haynes keeps his students on the go with the responsibilities of being 7th graders.

Mrs. Mary Parker is shown here teaching her 7th grade students the importance of knowing their English language.

Mrs. Edna Reece guides her sixth grade students in learning, and adds her own special touch of humor.

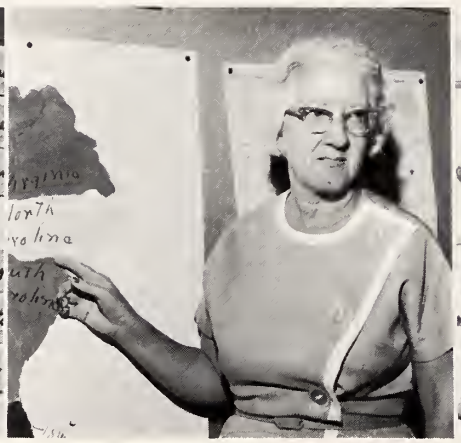

Mr. Everette Elledge's 6th grade, unperturbed by the photographers, lets no interruptions interfere with class work.

Sixth grade teacher, Mrs. Virginia Dyar, works earnestly to improve her students in their education and personal lives.

Without Mrs. Kathryn Fleming, the 5th grade would have a hard time learning about the states and capitals.

Miss Lois Parks is shown here, trying to prove to her 5th grade students the importance of knowing about the state in which they live.

Mrs. Jean Mathis, one of our 5th grade teachers, is striving hard to acquaint her fifth grade students with a higher degree of education.

With a smiling face, Mrs. Helen Dudley is always there to assist her 4th grade students in any problems that may arrive.

Miss Ohna Triplett finds teaching very interesting and expects the very best of her fourth graders.

Mrs. Sara Finger, one of our 4th grade teachers, strives to teach her students the importance of the educational part, as well as the social part of life.

Mrs. Mary Harris helps her third grade students to become interested in literature.

Her third and fourth grade students do not mind asking Mrs. Bray for help.

"Everyone is present today," says Mrs. Katherine Wilkins, third grade teacher.

Mrs. Iris Canipe helps to establish a firm foundation for her second graders.

Mrs. Hazel Nolan strives to improve her second grade students socially as well as educationally.

Mrs. Crissman's cheerfulness brightens her second grade room as she says, "Good morning, students."

Mrs. Kate Key provides her first grade students with interesting bulletin boards.

Mrs. Madison is always ready and willing to lend a helping hand to her first graders.

The first grade students always enjoy science when it is taught by Mrs. Ruby Canipe.

Good food is a trade mark for our school. The hard working Lunch Room Staff is always busy preparing the hot meals that we enjoy. Front row: Estelle Byrd, Ethel Adams, Lorene Ingool. Second row: Mary Blackburn, Sadie Vanhoy, Myrtle Ray, Lois Harris.

Keeping our school neat and clean is the job of our hard-working custodian, Larry Long.

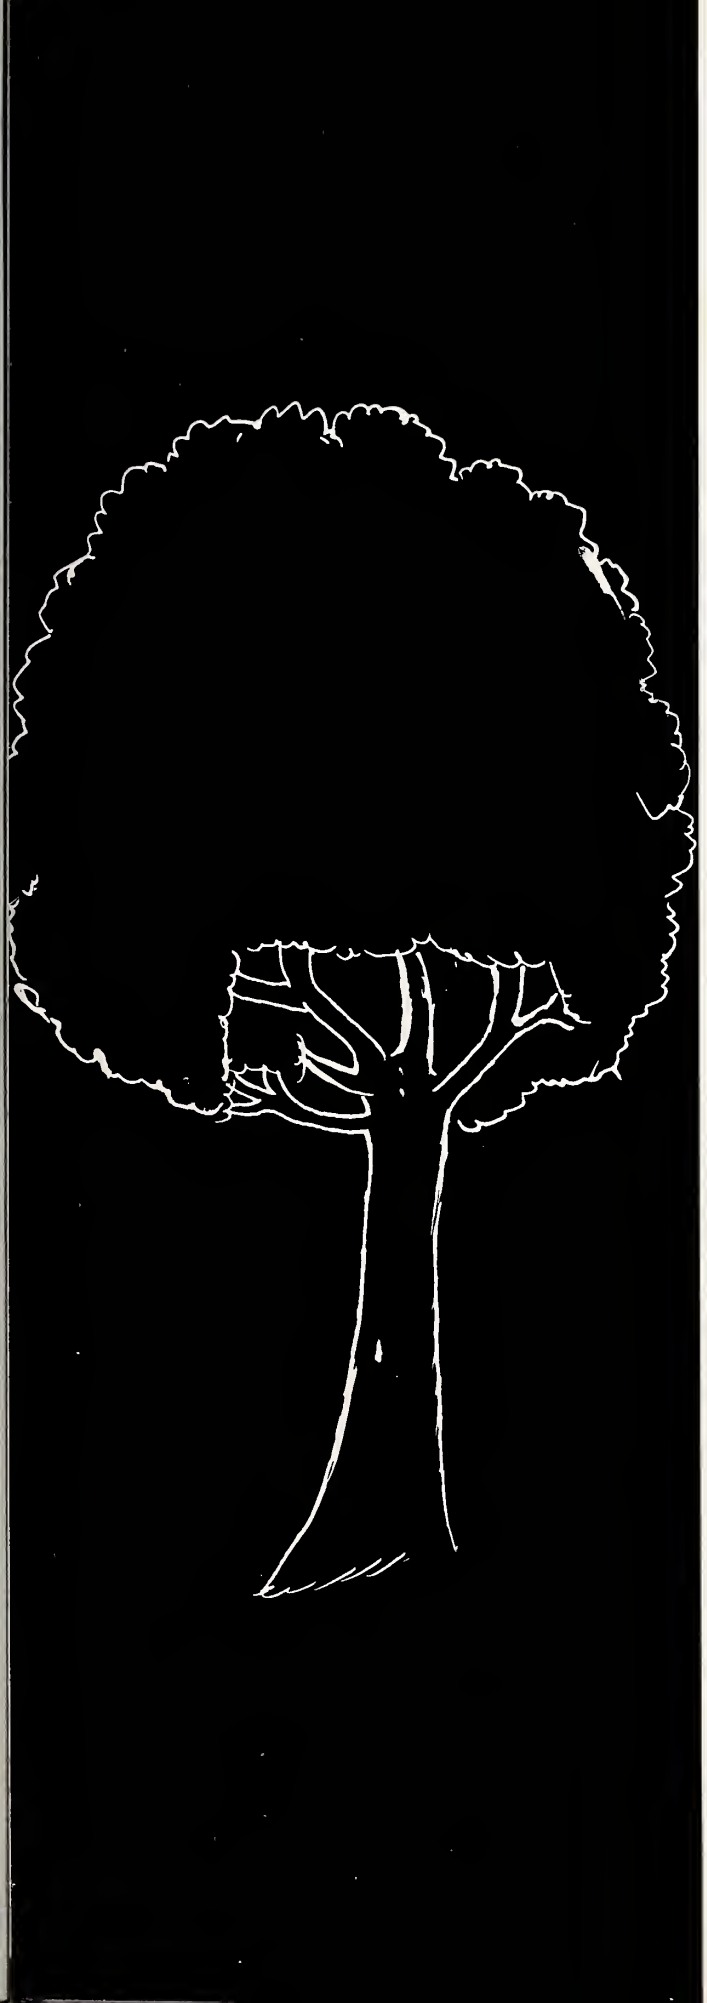

A special word of appreciation for those who prepare our meals, keep our buildings clean, and drive us safely to school.

A willing and faithful worker around the Elementary School is Allen Spicer.

The Bus Drivers are those boys around J.H.S. who have to get up earlier than anyone else to get you to school on time. We say thanks to these boys Donald Adams, Dallas Foster, Jack Stroud, Howard Wagoner, Larry Muncus and Arnold Wagoner.

Seniors

Let fate do her best, there are
Relics of joy
Bright beams of the past
Which we will never destroy.

The Seniors have formed the
Old sturdy tree,
They leave but take with them
A fond Memory!

Elementary

Changing their classes

Our Elementary grades are the acorns

With many subjects reflected on bulletin boards, it is a fascinating trip through primary classrooms. Such happy, hard working children indicate a high quality of teaching.

As the grades become higher the interests wider, and we find more variety in subjects taught. Good study habits and personality development are very important in this area.

"Do you think it'll make it, Don?" Richard Nance (12) and Jerry Finney (4) are ready just in case Don Adams misses this shot.

"Now which way am I suppose to go?" Yancey St. John must be thinking as he meets this big guy.

"Come, on, Bray, grab that rebound!" John Shaw shouts as he fires this shot. Ronnie Bray (25) and Don Adams (13) wait for the rebound just in case John missed.

Features

Our achievements don't go unrewarded
Our memories will never fade away
We'll remember these times and places
Almost every single day.

Our features show our very best
And that we appreciate all the rest.
Achievements deserves speçial attention
So here are the ones who deserve honorable mention.

Everyone is gay because it's fiesta time at the "Mardi Gras." The Juniors and Seniors are shown here in "before" and "after" scenes from the prom.

We danced at our prom . . .

Donald Adams looks very unhappy as he escorts Homecoming Queen, Judy Evans, in the Grand March. Could it be that somebody stole your gal, Donald?

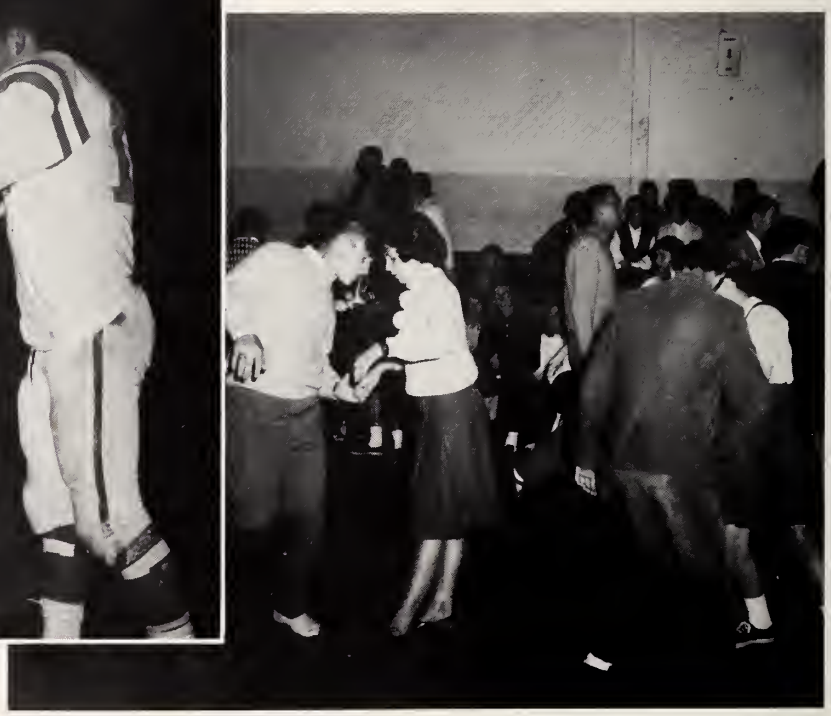

I loved you so . . .

The prom, homecoming, and the many school dances, offer much entertainment throughout the school year.

When we were a couple of kids.

Bernice Vestal was crowned "Miss Mardi Gras" of the 1961 Junior-Senior prom.

Some things that make our school "special".

The coaches' kids—Kathy Charles, Janice Mathis, and Carol Charles ride in the Homecoming parade with Gale Finney driving.

Mary Jane Reece and Laura Montgomery admire the finished job of decorating for the prom.

Ricky Hagwood helps out on the cleaning job in the gym.

For the loyalty displayed by both teachers and students—

For the helpful and friendly relationships that exist among the teachers and between the teachers and students—

For the recognition of scholarships, athletics, clubs, and other activities that contribute to the total development of the student—

For the interest shown by the patrons of the school and by the various community organizations—

For the quality of leadership shown by the graduates — WE TAKE PRIDE IN OUR SCHOOL.

Jerry Finney, Miss Speer and Patsy Thomas relax after a strenuous day of picture making for the Blue Jay.

And thanks to all who helped.

Advertisements

To the people who own and operate stores,
To the doctors, lawyers, and many more,
To the businessmen plus our Moms and Dads,
We send our thanks for Blue Jay ads.

To the customers who through our ads have learned,
Where to shop and not get burned,
To the folks who shop where the stores won't pinch you,
Please go in and tell them the Blue Jay sent you.
